

Nell & Key

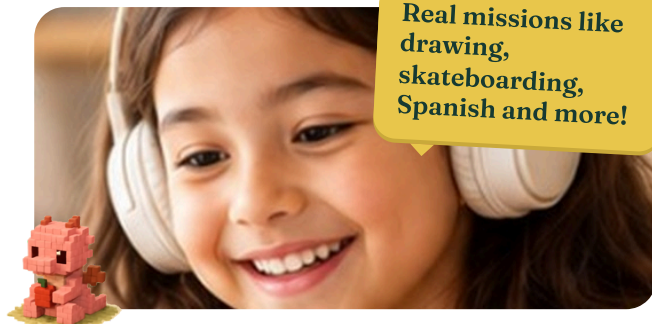

Math that plays like a movie.

Real missions. Real confidence.

Does your child need help with math?

Help them build skills, gain confidence, and find out that math can be fun.

One rich mission a day, built around what they love, and a caring mentor who gets to know how your child thinks.

Real-world math

Starts from what they love, ends with an idea they can explain.

1:1 mentors

A tutor who knows how your child thinks, with time to ask why.

Not worksheets

Every step is acted out on screen, with a voice.

Growth you can see

Each finished mission is a page in your family Book, with tutor notes.

How it works

Three steps. Nothing is charged until after the call.

1

Let's talk.

Tell us what they love and where math sticks. Akshat calls you.

2

Meet the mission.

Built around your child and checked by a person before they play.

3

Keep growing.

One rich mission a day, and a Book you open together.

Designed for Ages 6 to 14

Ages roughly 6 to 14. Every mission is written for their grade, at their level.

Akshat Koirala

Founder and math tutor. Eight years of teaching.

My first class was at an orphanage in Nepal. It showed me that math can be about curiosity and joy when it is connected to real life.
